OLD BUSINESS

CE Committee and CE Collaborative Report

Brock stated the CE Committee did not have any business, but will be meeting with the Collaborative and update at the next meeting.

Robin Simpson, NASW-Collaborative, provided a report detailing the CE Collaborative's January – August 2015 provider report.

Simpson reported the number of CE applications is greater than the numbers reported last year with an increase of five new counties primarily in the upper region of the state. She also reported the Collaborative is adding additional support staff.

Manela asked Simpson about the Collaborative's oversight of CE content that needs to be aligned with the CE Social Work Rules.

Barr will provide Simpson with the Social Work CE Rule wording.

NEW BUSINESS

Department Update

Barr updated that the proposed Social Work administrative rules have been submitted to the Office of Regulatory Reinvention (ORR) for review.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Maxine Thome, suggested a need to look at CE interpretation with rules regarding career enhanced knowledge that is not counted towards CE.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The next regularly scheduled meeting will be held November 24, 2015 at 9:30 a.m. at the Ottawa Building, 611 West Ottawa Street, Upper Level Conference Center, Conference Room 4, Lansing, Michigan.

Philson reported Najor-Durack was recently named as a recipient of the Sunny Andrews Award from ASWB and will be honored in November at the Fall ASWB Annual Meeting which will be held in Ft. Lauderdale.

This prestigious award is given to someone who has displayed exemplary service for their work and service on a regulatory board.

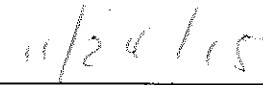

Najor-Durack thanked Philson and the Board members for their acknowledgement.
